

C&G: Forward, Onward, and Upward!

the CASTLEGRAM

The Casque & Gauntlet at Dartmouth College ❖ Spring 2019

2019 Spring Feast: Tales and Toasts

Everybody at this year's event was all smiles. The '19s are happy to be nearing graduation, the '20s are full of enthusiasm and are looking ahead to their senior year and their turn at being the reigning Knights and Ladies of the Castle. The alumni enjoy reminiscing and meeting the students. It's a great event. The Hanover Inn provides first class service, definitely a cut above the pans of lasagna that were the fare when we held the event in the Great Room at the Corner.

Since everybody seemed in a smiley good mood this last April Feast, it seemed appropriate to recognize the biggest smiles and include them here.

(continued on next page)

First award goes to an incoming '20, Gustavo! He's a most cheerful guy and will brighten up the '20s in the year ahead.

When it comes to style and class, here is Rena King '20 from Los Angeles. Great dress, Rena!

Alums enjoy mixing it up with the students. Here's Abe Holland, Arthur of 2008, offering kingly advice to three '19s who seem to be enjoying it.

C&G Online!

You can find the Casque & Gauntlet community online in a few different places! Please join our growing online community! Choose whichever platforms you like. We are excited to support these easy ways to stay connected with one another and to enhance the alumni experience! All three are secured for C&G members only. Read below for a brief description of each forum and what you can expect to find there.

Website:

www.casqueandgauntlet.org

Our website is the best place to find official news and announcements from C&G. You will find articles, photos, and history, as well as current resources, like the Castlegram and online dues payment. In addition, the website is the one place where you will find a master list of each delegation. There is also a public page that provides basic information about C&G to the greater Dartmouth community and the general public. Please register if you haven't already to access all public and member-only content.

Facebook Group:

www.facebook.com

Facebook is a social networking site and the perfect place to engage with C&G members around the world. Current students and alumni post photos, toasts, and event announcements for happenings at the Castle and in your local region. Posting is easy, and we welcome contributions from you to stay in touch with fellow Knights and Ladies. Our group is entitled "Casque and Gauntlet," and you will see it come up as a "closed group." Simply request to join it, and you will be added within a few days.

LinkedIn Group:

www.linkedin.com

LinkedIn is a professional networking site and is a great place to connect with C&G members on career-related topics. You can find C&G members in a particular field or business, learn about industry networking events, and share job openings and professional expertise. Search for "Casque and Gauntlet," click to join, and you will be added shortly.

2019 Spring Feast: Tales and Toasts, cont'd.

(continued from page 1)

Nobody enjoys this gathering more than our Canadian ambassador, Jim Stein '79

Couples welcome too! The Goodmans, Laura Beth and Denny '60, are loyal regulars in all matters C&G.

Another spirited tale was offered by Rob Christie '74, aka "The Green Knight" (and his faithful canine, Rosie). Rob enchanted us all by his telling of the adventures of the Green Knight, a true Arthurian tale.

One final announcement: I've been a Merlin for 60 wonderful years, filled with deepening friendships and increasing appreciation of the spirit of C&G. I have seen that spirit promote fellowship among the students and inspiration among the alumni, lifelong! It has certainly inspired me. I'm a more honorable, more high-minded man because of the example set by other Knights I have met and worked with over the many years. My personal magic has been strong here and I have been able to contribute words, poems, lights, Arthurian lore, plus energy and enthusiasm for the betterment of Casque and Gauntlet.

Now it is time for me to move on. Old Wizards never die, they just become "invisible." My own Merlin-Spirit will always be watching over C&G, whispering in the silence of the Grail Room. Viva C&G!

The full story of my years as Merlin will appear in next winter's Castlegram.

Joel Heathcote
Merlin of '61 (and beyond!)

A Meaningful Toast

Several toasts were offered and one was very special. It harkened back 40 years when our current Alumni Arthur, Ed Kania, was King Arthur of his 1979 delegation during a critical time at C&G. The debate was about admitting women!

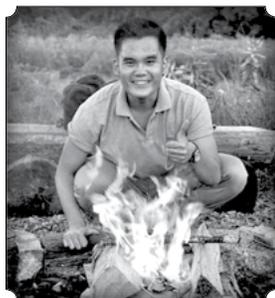

It is hard to believe that issue was so divisive, but it was back then. C&G was a very traditional fellowship and some Knights had very strong opinions! A vote was held, resulting in a split decision, although most voted for admission.

Ed demonstrated his wisdom and instinct for leadership by asking in good faith that there be another vote, a unanimous vote, so the delegation could act as one. Both sides agreed and a divided delegation was avoided.

Most of us, especially the younger members, did not know this history of women at C&G but this excellent toast gave us all renewed appreciation for the "Strong Character and High Ideals" of our alumni officers. C&G is not a club. It is an inspiration!

HERE ARE THE '19s, READY TO BUILD A WISER WORLD

The full biographies are posted on the website (casqueandgauntlet.org)

Benny Adapon '19

BENNY ADAPON '19 is from Manila in the Philippines and studies geography. On campus, he is active in the Sustainability Office, the Office of Pluralism and Leadership, serves as an undergraduate residential advisor, and conducts research in the geography department. His talents include organizing queer spaces and steaming milk. After graduation, Benny hopes to work in urban planning and development.

performer of Street Soul, Alexis currently serves as co-senior society liaison of the delegation. She hopes to pursue work in the field of marketing and communications.

Paulina Calcaterra '19

Co-Merlin PAULINA CALCATERRA '19 is a psychology and history double major from Long Island, New York. At Dartmouth, she has done labor centering around sexual violence prevention and response work, served as a member of the inter-community council, and conducted research in a social psychology lab. She cares deeply about gender equity, ending gender- and power-based violence, and expanding access to mental health services. After graduation, she hopes to become a therapist.

SANDRA AKA '19, from Germantown, Maryland, is a qualitative social sciences major with a focus on Africa. Her involvements on campus include D-Step, the Dartmouth African Student Association, COSO, and the Dartmouth Business Journal. In the future, Sandra hopes to fix the portrayal of Africa in western media, and promote a number of causes including social entrepreneurship, childhood education, and female empowerment. After graduation, Sandra will be working as an analyst at Bank of America Merrill Lynch in New York City.

Sandra Aka '19

KENNETH CHOU '19 is a geography major from Taipei, Taiwan, currently hailing from San Francisco. The co-senior society liaison of the delegation, Ken has served as exec board member of Asian/American Students for Activism, undergraduate residential advisor, and staff member at Novack. After graduation, he hopes to immerse himself into the world of social impact through social sector learning and development.

Kenneth Chou '19

Charlene Browne '19

Co-Merlin CHARLENE BROWNE '19 is a linguistics major modified with classics from Boston. She has been involved with the Office of Pluralism as both an ambassador and program director, writes for a literary magazine, leads drill, and is a James O. Freedman Presidential Scholar. Charlene enjoys going to shows and theatrical productions and creating art, and she champions diversity and inclusivity, environmental conservation, and historical/cultural preservation. She hopes to enter the workforce straight after graduation.

Sandile Dube '19

SANDILE DUBE '19, the proud Sir Ironside with a major in engineering and a minor in environmental studies (on the sustainability track), is from the Kingdom of Eswatini. He is an undergraduate residential advisor, a teaching assistant at Thayer's Machine Shop, a consultant at SINC (a student-run social impact consultancy serving nonprofit organizations in the Upper Valley), and a co-host and founder of The DJs Must Be Crazy (Dartmouth's premier African music show). After graduation, Sandile will return to Thayer to complete the Bachelor of Engineering. Renewable energy technologies and environmental policy are causes that Sandile holds dearly, particularly within the African context.

ALEXIS D. CASTILLO '19 is from Salinas, California. She is majoring in sociology with a minor in education. Her related interest in increasing access to higher education for low-income, first-generation students of color is evident in her leadership in the Latinx community on campus and as an organizer of 1vyG, an Ivy-plus first-generation college student conference. A member of Alpha Theta Gender Inclusive House and a

Alexis D. Castillo '19

ELLIE GONZALEZ '18 is a women and gender studies major and theatre studies minor from Baltimore, Maryland. Currently, they work at

(continued on next page)

Ellie Gonzalez '18

(continued from previous page)

Novack Café and have spent time creating programming and spaces for queer communities on campus, and are involved with Divine Queers and Q. Some of the causes they care about include LGBT+ rights, immigrant justice, racial justice, mass incarceration, and sexual education. After graduation, they hope to work in social impact.

AMARA GORDON '19, from Tacoma, Washington, is a computer science major modified with digital arts. She performs in a step team, promotes women in technology through her leadership in Women in Computer Science, and is a member of Dartmouth's NAACP chapter. She is passionate about social justice reform and arts in public schools. After having previously interned for Microsoft, she will work with the company after graduation as a program manager.

Amara Gordon '19

Sarah Gupta '19

SARAH GUPTA '19 is from Louisville, Kentucky, and a linguistics major and computer science minor. She has been involved with the South Asian Student Association and Best Buddies, and was an undergraduate residential advisor. Having studied Spanish and Arabic and currently finessing her Hindi and Farsi with her parents, she is currently applying to grad school for computational linguistics. Sarah currently serves as treasurer of the delegation.

HA'AEHO HANOHANO '19 is from Waimanalo, Hawaii, and is studying management and financial engineering. He is involved in men's volleyball, Hokupa'a, Native Americans at Dartmouth, and the Beta Alpha Omega Fraternity. He cares about Native Hawaiian affairs (with regard to water/land rights and the like), as well as affordable housing and revamping education—things most relevant to his community back home. After graduation, Ha'a plans to relocate to Texas to start a career in business and be closer his longtime girlfriend.

Ha'aeo Hanobano '19

ALEX HAWLEY '19, an anthropology and Native American Studies double major from Ogden, Utah, works as an undergraduate residential advisor, is one of the Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellows, and is a member of the Native Americans at Dartmouth community.

Alex Hawley '19

Alex cares about improving Native women's health and access to care, as well as maternal-child health disparities in general. She says her post-graduation plan is to "free her mind."

Yolanda Huerta '19

YOLANDA HUERTA '19, an environmental studies major and studio art minor from East Los Angeles, California, is another one of the delegation's resident artists: after graduation she plans on working as a teaching assistant and intern for the Studio Art Department at Dartmouth. Naturally, she paints and overall just enjoys crafting or creating. Yolanda is an Ecorep Manager on campus and cares about environmental justice and advocating for minority groups.

POLIMANA JOSHEVAMA '19 is an environmental studies major on the pre-med track from Tucson, Arizona. Poli is the president of Native Americans at Dartmouth (NAD) and the American Indian Science and Engineering Society (AISES). She can often be found around the Sustainability Office and the organic farm. After graduation, Poli plans to finish pre-med requirements and then go to med school. In the meantime, you can find her dismantling oppressive systems.

Polimana Joshevama '19

Megan Larkin '19

MEGAN LARKIN '19 hails from Portland, Oregon, and is a geography major and environmental studies minor. Her interests include climate change, environmental and racial justice, and eradicating gender-based violence. This co-social chair of the delegation has been a part of Divest Dartmouth, the Inter-Community Council, DOC First Year Trips, and various committees dedicated to preventing sexual violence. After graduation, Megan hopes to work for an NGO/company that matches her values.

AKEEM L. LINDO '19 is an African and African-American studies major from Jamaica, currently residing in Boston. On campus, he can frequently be found providing tech support in Collis, deejaying Shabazz parties, and being involved in the Men of Color Alliance. Serving as co-spirit and community chair of the delegation, Akeem's inspiration is his family back home in Jamaica, and he hopes to contribute to issues surrounding poverty, homelessness, and educational accessibility after graduation.

Akeem L. Lindo '19

(continued on next page)

(continued from previous page)

Aaron Lit '19

AARON LIT '19, from Hong Kong, is a mathematics major with a minor in human-centered design. He sings with the Dartmouth Brovertones, is a pianist, draws, and does some underwater photography. Marine conservation, marine biodiversity, and sustainable consumerism are all causes that are important to Aaron, and his biggest inspirations are Jane Goodall, David Attenborough, and Sylvia Earl.

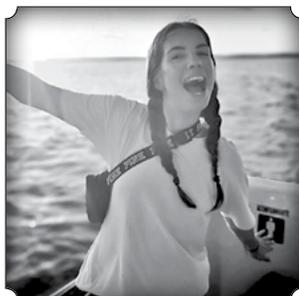

some investment management work in the hedge fund industry. Re's biggest inspiration is his Ori, or his spiritual intuition and destiny.

Barbara Olachea '19

BARBARA OLACHEA '19 is from Mexicali, Baja California, and has lived in Phoenix for most of her life. Majoring in sociology and film & media studies, she is interested in where storytelling and activism meet. At Dartmouth, she has been a leader of CoFIREd (Coalition for Immigration Reform, Equality, and Dreamers), served as marketing intern for OPAL, and projectionist for the Hopkins Center for the Arts. After graduation, this historian of the current delegation hopes to work in documentaries.

JARELY LOPEZ '19 hails from Oxnard, California, and is a geography major and a Hispanic lusophone and international studies minor. She works for the Guarini Institute of International Education, the Office of Residential Life, and as a Spanish drill instructor; she is also a part of Ujima Dance Troupe and Fuerza: Migrant Justice. She champions environmental justice, multicultural integration, and international education for underrepresented populations, and after graduation she plans to work with a human rights organization in São Paulo, Brazil, and, later, attend graduate school for geography or international relations.

Jarely Lopez '19

KRISTEN PEREZ '19 is a double philosophy and government major from Celina, Texas. Currently, she is the president of Dartmouth Minority Pre-Law Association, co-alliance director for CoFIREd, and member of Epsilon Kappa Theta. Co-spirit and community chair of the delegation, she is interested in immigration issues, gender-based violence, and economic inequality. After graduation, she hopes to take off a few years doing meaningful work in communities before applying to law school. Eventually, Kristen hopes to work at a nonprofit or law firm.

Kristen Perez '19

Thobile A. Mawerera '19

This delegation's Arthur, THOBILE A. MAWERERA '19, is a psychology major and education minor from Harare, Zimbabwe. He is a member of Dartmouth African Students Association, performs with Soul Scribes and Music in Color, and serves on the executive boards of all three groups. Thobile is also one of the international student mentors for the class of 2022, and works in both 53 Commons and at the front desk in Collis. After graduation, he is looking to take a year off from academics—hopefully working—before moving on to grad school.

VANESSA SONNCO '18 is a government major from Phoenix, Arizona. She has been involved with CoFIREd, Dartmouth Quest for Socioeconomic Engagement, and the First-Year Student Enrichment Program community. Immigrants' rights and racial and class justice are all causes that Vanessa cares about, and after she graduates she plans to return to Phoenix and work for an immigration advocacy group.

Arvind Suresh '19

ARVIND SURESH '19 is a biology major and computer science minor from Orange County, California. He is a founder and president of TEDxDartmouth, president of Shanti (Dartmouth's official Hindu student organization), co-coordinator of the Nathan Smith Society's executive committee, an emergency medical technician with Dartmouth EMS, and is involved in undergraduate research at the Norris Cotton Cancer Center.

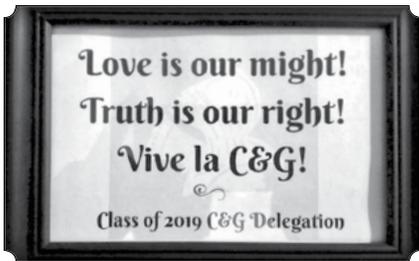

He is also a vocalist of Indian Carnatic music, plays classical piano, and creates smartphone apps. He plans to attend medical school at the Geisel School at Dartmouth.

RESEUN MCCLENDON '19, from Nashville, Tennessee, is a cognitive science major who is involved in programs in the Rockefeller Center. A cause that matters to Re is addressing the low number of minorities in top fields. After graduating, he most likely plans to do AI investment philanthropy for the summer, and then

Reseun McClendon '19

A Glimpse of our Year at the Corner

The ever present lyrics of our anthem, printed and framed for all the '19s to keep for themselves after their Spring Retreat in 2018.

From left to right, Barbara Olachea '19, Yolanda Huerta '19, and Alexis Castillo '19 elegantly posing for the camera during Spring Feast 2018.

Kristen Perez '19 (left) and Barbara Olachea '19 (right) joining some knights in the MET in New York during their spring break.

Grail Time in the library in the Castle during winter term with the 2019 Delegation's Arthur, Tobile Mawerera (seated in armchair). Also featured here are Paulina Calcaterra '19* and Akeem Lindo '19. (*Paulina's face is cut off from the frame, unfortunately.)

True to tradition, to end off the induction ceremony both the delegations of 2019 and 2020 gathered in front of the house to sing. In this photo, they were actually singing for a second time, as a Knight of the '15s heard us from the Hanover Inn and asked to join in.

The '19s teaching the '20s the C&G for induction before heading outside to sing. Left photo: (standing) Sarab Gupta '19; (seated, foreground) Paulina Calcaterra '19; (seated, background, l-r) Brenda Batista '20, Jarely Lopez '19, Lylia Eng '20, Kenya Pascasio '20, Ijeoma Nwuke '20, Réna King '20. Right photo: (standing, l-r) Tobile Mawerera '19, Akeem Lindo '19; (seated, l-r) (couches) Jesus Franco '20, Jiachen Jiang '20, Ty Fierce Metteba '20, Nick Woo '20; (table) Shelbi Fitzpatrick '19, Ha'abeo Hanobano '19.

Some of the '19s engaging in a bonding activity during one of the sleepovers in the house in the fall term. Featured here (from the bottom left, going clockwise around the table): Maanav Jalan '19, Anisha Ariff '19, Kristen Perez '19, Vanessa Sonno '18, Amara Gordon '19, Yolanda Huerta '19, Arthur Mensab '19, Akeem Lindo '19, Tobile Mawerera '19, Paulina Calcaterra '19, Megan Larkin '19, and Armando Pulido '19.

THE '19S PARTICIPATING IN THIS YEAR'S ICE SCULPTURE COMPETITION FOR WINTER CARNIVAL, CARVING OUT A NARWHAL

1. Kenneth Chou '19, Yolanda Huerta '19
2. Maanav Jalan '19, Vanessa Soncco '18 & Alexis Castillo '19 all standing with the block before sculpting began
3. The finished product.
4. Alexis Castillo '19, Sandile Dube '19
5. Vanessa Soncco '18, Kristen Perez '19, Yolanda Huerta '19

Five of the '19s (and an additional friend on the far right) capturing the moment as they all ran into each other at Microbrews in One Wheelock during fall term. From left to right: Benny Adapon '19, Ha'abeo Hanobano '19, Akeem Lindo '19, Alex Hawley '19, and Shelbi Fitzpatrick '19.

ALUMNI SEND THEIR NEWS & NOTES

Morton Thalhimer Jr. '46 asks if he's the oldest alumnus out there. Anyone from surrounding classes want to drop him a note? Write to him at tallmort@aol.com or at 4 Paxton Rd., Richmond, VA 23226.

"My wife and I live quietly in Honolulu," updates Richard Halloran '51 (Sir Percival). "I hung up the typewriter in 2015, after 60 years of journalism, and my hockey skates at the age of 60, when I moved to Hawaii—not much hockey played here!" Catch up with Richard at oranhall51@gmail.com or at 1065 Koa'opulu Place, Honolulu, HI 96825.

James Crawford '58 (Beaumains) now has a second fourth-generation family member at Dartmouth. Originating with Henry B. Crawford '25, two Casque and Gauntlet members followed, James and Robert L. Crawford '90, who were then followed by Benjamin C. Crawford '92 and Robert L. Crawford Jr., the latter of which is now in the class of 2022. The second fourth-generation starts with Elizabeth Crawford Ragan '86 (a C&G) and James Crawford Ragan '16. Learn more about this legacy from James by contacting him at rev.james.crawford@gmail.com or at 11 Russet Ct., Lincoln, MA 01773.

"Can somebody tell me my knightly name?" Samuel Swanson '59 asks. Contact him and let him know: sstarz@aol.com; 370 Saint Paul St., Denver, CO 80206.

Still living in New York City, Stephen Spahn '63 has recently celebrated 50 years as the chancellor of the Dwight School. "We have grown into a major innovator as an International Baccalaureate Frontier school, with campuses in New York, London, Shanghai, Seoul, Dubai, and online," he updates. "Our credo is 'to ignite the spark of genius in every child, in order to build a better world.'" The school has also developed an innovative, creative, entrepreneurial methodology that is applied by faculty such as Stephen. "Students become skilled revolutionary thinkers who can direct the disruption credited by the internet-of-all-things run by intelligent algorithms. The challenge is to ensure that the ethical, political, and social impacts are controlled by knowledgeable leaders and by mathematical daisism." (465 Park Ave., Apt #19 W, New York, NY 10022; sspahn@dwight.edu)

William Blanchard '68 (Sir Warhaus) has retired as a pediatric cardiologist after 45 years in practice. He was honored as the national physician of the year by the American Heart Association (1999), and as the Florida physician of the year by the Florida Hospital Association (2005). What is he up to currently? "I successfully advocated, wrote, and led to the passage of two bills in the Florida legislature, establishing standards for pediatric surgery centers and mandating public reporting of surgical and interventional catheterization outcomes," he says. William is married to wife, Mary, and has three children and four grandchildren. (3248 Bayou Lane, Pensacola, FL 32503; bcblanchard@cox.net)

"The class of 1969 is looking forward to our 50th Reunion," writes Terry Jacobs '69 (Sir Lionel). "Hard to believe it has been that long—so, seniors, treasure your time!" Keep in touch with Terry at haj3@jacobswyper.com or at 127 W. Highland Ave., Philadelphia, PA 19118.

In his book Independence Corrupted, How

(continued on next page)

CASQUE & GAUNTLET

ALUMNI SEND THEIR NEWS & NOTES

(continued from previous page)

America's Judges Make Their Decisions, published in October 2018, Charlie Schudson '72 reveals the mounting pressures on very human judges, with consequences for us all. He offers a 33 percent discount to all C&G family and friends with the code AA123. A judge himself, get in touch with the author at kynoteseminars@gmail.com.

Jandel Allen-Davis '80 writes in with her "newest news," saying, "I have left Kaiser Permanente after over 24 years and am now the president and CEO of Craig Hospital." Craig is one of the nation's top-100 post-acute-care rehabilitation hospitals for people who have sustained spinal chord and/or brain injuries. Of this position, Jandel says, "I am honored and privileged to lead this amazing organization...and as life goes, who knew this would be the next adventure? It is an amazing place, filled with the most patient and family-centered professionals I have ever worked alongside! Life is good." Jandel remains tied to Dartmouth, having recently joined the Geisel School of Medicine's advisory board. She was in Hanover in October of 2018. "I paused in front of the Castle and gave thought to going and knocking on the door. It would have been too weird for the undergrads, but as one of the initial six (seven?) women to join, I am proud to be a Lady of the Round Table. Keep identifying the best among the best!" she says. Get in touch with Jandel at jc4ja@aol.com or at 2354 E. Terrace Dr., Highlands Ranch, CO 80126.

After appointment to the D.C. Superior Court bench in 2000 by former President Clinton and 18 years of service, Judge John Mott '81 has accepted a position with JAMS, a national leader in alternative dispute resolution. Here, he will mediate and arbitrate disputes, perform case evaluation, and oversee investigations and other projects. He will continue on the court as a senior judge. John remains active at Dartmouth as a mentor for the Rockefeller Center and the Bridges to Impact program, an alumni ambassador, and an occasional lecturer on campus on issues related to civil rights, public service, and careers in law. He lives in the District with his two sons, Luke and Sam, who are a high school senior and a sophomore. Get back in touch with John at johnmmott@gmail.com.

Matt Bonaiuto '93 (Sir Tristram) had a great time catching up with other '93 C&Gs at the reunion this past June. He sends an exciting update, saying, "In August, my wife, son, and I moved to Beijing. So far so good!" (julie.turchin@gmail.com)

"I'm almost finished with the run of a world-premier production here in Los Angeles," writes Brent Schindele '93 in reference to In a Booth at Chasen's, a two-person show about the courtship of Ronald and Nancy Reagan. "It's been a thrilling challenge to play the former U.S. president when he was merely a young actor and president of the Screen Actors Guild, right when he met the love of his life. The producers hope to take it 'off Broadway' before long, if all goes well." Brent recently shot two films, including a short about the legendary "air pirate," Dan "D.B." Cooper, who brought a bomb onto an airliner in 1971, demanded $200,000, let all the unsuspecting passengers off the plane, took off again, and skydived out of the cargo hold, never to be heard of again. He plays Cooper, and the film, "Call Me Dan," should hit festivals in the spring. Brent adds:

deceased

We regret to announce the deaths of:

Robert V.P. Waterman '50
February 28, 2003

J. Brooks Dodge '51
January 17, 2018

Paul R. Staley '51
January 5, 2018

Robert B. Binswanger '52
March 16, 2019

Alan C. Davis '52
December 9, 2017

David E. Anderson '66
May 28, 2018

"Most importantly, my wife and I somehow managed to become homeowners in Southern California. Can't wait to visit the Castle again soon!" Keep in touch with Brent at akwaman7@hotmail.com.

"I recently left my job at Stanford, where I had been for six years," says Julie (McGuire) Turchin '98. Her career shifted a bit, and she is now a high school psychology teacher at a local private school. Only two weeks in, she says it's "going well so far! I'm really excited to be back in a classroom and am learning quickly the differences between high school and college."

"After five years teaching on the west coast (Palo Alto, Los Angeles), my wife and I returned home to New York for a new chapter," updates Hillary Miller '02 (Gawain). Hillary is now teaching 20th- and 21st-Century dramatic literature at Queens College, CUNY, in Flushing, Queens. "My second book is due out in late 2019, and I'm enjoying getting to know a new university (and new borough!)," Hillary continues. "I'm grateful to all the C&G friends who supported me over the years in my moves and transitions, and I look forward to catching up with some East Coast Knights, Ladies, and Queens!" (4712 48th Street, #3F, Woodside, NY 11377; hillary.miller@gmail.com)

the CASTLEGRAM

is published regularly by the Casque and Gauntlet at Dartmouth College for its friends and members. News and notes are always welcome and should be sent to alumnirecords@casqueandgauntlet.org or to Alumni Services, Casque & Gauntlet, PO Box 5159, Hanover, NH 03755-5159.

The Castlegram is edited by Joel Heathcote '61, Merlin/Scribe/Editor. Your comments and letters to the editor are most welcome: joelazer@me.com.

For the latest, don't forget to check us out online at www.casqueandgauntlet.org, where you can also update your contact information electronically.